A Canadian Pacific Hotel—Atop of Old Quebec

Modern Romance Atop Ancient Ramparts
 Historic ramparts,—these. Walk them, and you command an Old World while in the New. . . . 300 years ago, French soldiers built the Fortress of Quebec. Put a quaint French town below, cannon atop. Then kept the French tricolor waving for 150 years. . . . Today, this famous battlement still stands. Still lords it over St. Lawrence and the 17th Century town. But its shot-scarred stones are now a promenade. Its garrison—a pleasuring throng. A band plays Broadway airs. . . . The castle is a Canadian Pacific hostelry. Its reign is one of hospitality and cordiality, of modern comforts and modish cuisine. . . . Come up this summer. Good motor roads. Or overnight in a Pullman. Make your reservations now. Apply to Canadian Pacific office, 44th Street and Madison Avenue, New York, or Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, Canada.
